GEORGE GUND III Co-Chairman of the Board

When you look at the ownership level in the National Hockey League, you see very few people who play the same game that they operate. Maybe they played when they were kids, but not now. George Gund, who, with his brother Gordon, owns the Minnesota team, is an exception to the rule. Gund, 44, played an active role on the ice through last season. What's more, the North Star team is not his only hockey property. Gund is an owner of Sun Valley, Idaho, Ice Skating, Inc., and takes a regular shift on defense for the Sun Valley Suns. Gund's interest in the playing end of the game is not new-found. He played hockey as a youngster in his home town of Cleveland and organized the first team at Western Reserve University. He also played for the Cleveland Falcons in that city's league and for city league teams in Seattle and San Francisco. Gund entered the National Hockey League picture in 1975 when he became part owner of the California Seals. He was instrumental in the move of the California team to Cleveland in 1976 and in the purchase of the team by him and his brother in 1977. It was in June of 1978 when he helped to put together the unprecedented merger of the Minnesota and Cleveland teams and a little over a month later when the Gund brothers assumed 100 per cent control of the North Stars. He served on the board of the Ameritrust Company and is a past Board Member of the Redwood Bank in San Francisco. Along with real estate interests in the Bay Area and Port Angeles, Wash., he has a cattle ranch in Lee, Nev. In addition, he is an importer and distributor of foreign films and chairman of the San Francisco International Film Festival. He was a founding shareholder and past chairman of the Board of the Rusty Scupper Restaurant chain. Gund is a Trustee of the George Gund Foundation. He is also a Trustee of KQED, the Public Broadcasting Station and FM radio station in San Francisco, the San Francisco Art Institute, San Francisco Museum of Art, a member of the Board of Directors of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame. He is a partner of Gunwyn Ventures, a venture capital company, and Vice Chairman of Gund Investment Corporation. Gund and his wife, Theo, make their home in Sun Valley. They are parents of two boys.

GORDON GUND

Co-Chairman of the Board

Gordon Gund's interest in hockey sprang from his days as a boy at Groton School, was reinforced at Harvard University where he played defense for the Crimson and continues today at the National Hockey League level. Gund, 42, joined his brother George, in 1977 in ownership of the former Cleveland Barons and played a key role in the summer of 1978 when the Gunds assumed control of the North Stars and the Met Center. The expertise shown in completion of the merger is typical of Gund's successful, wide-ranging career in business and public service. Gund is founder and managing partner of Gunwyn Ventures of Princeton, J.J., and principal owner and general partner of GUS Enterprises, San Francisco. Gunwyn is a venture capital firm with investments in several industries. GUS Enterprises, formed in 1969, is involved in all phases of real estate development nationally for its own account. Gordon is a director of two major regional bank holding companies, Ameritrust Corp. of Cleveland and First Florida Bank of Tampa, Florida. He is on the executive committee of both of these bank holding companies and also a director of each of their lead banks. He has taken a leading role in national charitable/philanthropic endeavors. In 1971, he co-founded the National Retinitis Pigmentosa Foundation (RPF) headquartered in Baltimore, MD., and is now Vice Chairman and Trustee of the RPF. This foundation is dedicated to finding a treatment or cure for retinitis pigmentosa and allied degenerative diseases of the retina which impair the vision of many thousands of children and adults in this country alone, often leading to total blindness. This Foundation now has 43 chapters in 28 states and five international affiliates. Gund was recently appointed as a member of the National Advisory Eye Council (NAEC). NAEC has responsibility for the direction and oversight of federal funds available for eye research nationally. He is president and trustee of the Gund Collection of Western Art, a travelling collection of 70 works of art, representing some of the most recognized American western artists including Remington, Russell, and Bierstadt. Gund is also president of the Board of Trustees of Groton School in Groton, Mass. He received his A.B. in 1961 from Harvard University. Gund and his wife, Lura, make their home in New Jersey. They are the parents of two boys.

JOHN F.
KARR
President

John Karr's tenure as president of the Minnesota North Stars parallels the team's rise to the upper levels of the National Hockey League. Since he took over direction of the organization, the North Stars have been transformed from a last-place team to a Stanley Cup finalist. Karr's duties encompass much more than his relationship with the North Stars. He is responsible for all the variety of activities that take place during the operation and promotion of a multi-purpose facility such as Met Center. Karr is president and chief operating officer of the corporation that governs the team and building. He serves on the club's board of directors and is an alternate member of the NHL Board of Governors. Karr, 52, entered the business world in 1953 after he was awarded his MBA at Indiana University. He served on management teams for the Burroughs Corp., The Trane Co., Arthur D. Little, Inc., Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and Cole National Corp. For Cole National, a New York Stock Exchange listed specialty retail company, he served in several capacities including Vice President-Planning, Vice President Finance and Administration and a member of the board of directors. Karr moved into the National Hockey League during the 1977-78 season as president and chief operating officer of the Cleveland Barons. After completion of the history-making amalgamation of the Cleveland and Minnesota teams, Karr was chosen for the same positions with the North Stars. Karr spent his early days on Michigan's Upper Peninsula in the small town of Allouez. He later moved to Detroit and attended high school in that city. He served two years in the United States Army. Karr was graduated in 1952 from Wayne State University. Karr and his wife, Mildred, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of four children, two boys and two girls.

WALTER
BUSH, JR.
Vice President

One of the first moves made by George and Gordon Gund after they purchased the North Stars was to name Walter Bush, Jr., vice president. They recognized his devotion to hockey, his wide range of knowledge of the sport and its people and his experience as one of the founders of the North Stars and as chief executive of the club. Bush also has served as governor or alternate governor of the team in every year of its existence. Bush was born in Minneapolis and has been a resident of the Twin Cities all of his life. He attended school, played hockey and was graduated from Breck School and Dartmouth College and earned his degree in law from the University of Minnesota. He was one of three men to bring professional hockey, in the form of the Central League to Minneapolis. That was the first step on the road to an NHL franchise for Minnesota, a drive spearheaded by Bush. Bush was chosen winner of the Lester Patrick Trophy in 1973 for his contributions to United States hockey and was named NHL Executive of the Year by the Hockey News in 1972. He was named to the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame this year. Bush is a director of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, secretary of the U.S. Olympic Hockey Committee and a director of the Amateur Hockey Association of the U.S. Bush, 52, serves as chairman of the AHAUS International Section. He is in charge of this year's World Junior Tournament, which will be held in Minnesota Dec. 26-Jan. 2. He is the first U.S. citizen to serve as vice-president and member of the Board of Governors of the NHL Hall of Fame. Bush and his wife, Mary, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of a girl and two boys.

LOU NANNE
General Manager

When Lou Nanne took over the reins at Minnesota the North Stars ranked last in the National Hockey League. At the end of three-plus seasons under his management the team is one short step from the Stanley Cup. The improvement shown by Minnesota in that short span of time has earned Nanne the respect of his peers and the entire world of hockey. The main measures of his performance at Minnesota are the North Stars' leap from last overall in 1977-78 to sixth overall in 1979-80, and the club's remarkable showing in reaching the Stanley Cup finals in 1981. Of the players on that 1980-81 squad, only five were left from the team that Nanne took over in 1978. While Nanne has spent countless hours improving the fortunes of the North Stars, he also has been active in endeavors aimed at overall improvement of the NHL. He was deeply involved in the negotiations that led to the NHL-WHA merger and is equally interested in the project to realign the National League. Nanne has been a North Star ever since he turned professional. He was the only performer to play with the North Stars in all of the first 11 years of the team's existence. Over those 11 seasons he played defense most of the time, but had a couple of highly-successful seasons at right wing. A native of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nanne played junior hockey with Phil and Tony Esposito, but chose to attend the University of Minnesota where he became the only defenseman to win the WCHA scoring title. A naturalized citizen, he captained the United States Olympic team in 1968. For a number of years he served as color commentator during television broadcasts of the Minnesota high school hockey tournament. He has been and is the most-recognized hockey figure in the state. Nanne, 40, and his wife, Francine, live in Edina. They are the parents of a girl, twin boys and a third boy.

GLEN SONMOR

Coach

Glen Sonmor began coaching hockey back in 1956, but there's no doubt that the most enjoyable of the 25 years since then was last season. That year of 1980-81 saw Sonmor take his team to the Stanley Cup final, a first for Minnesota and a first for Sonmor. "I've had a good many thrills in the game, but nothing to equal that," said the talkative, enthusiastic coach. "There's only one way to better it and that's to go all the way." After three years and 229 regular-season games, the 52-year-old Sonmor has the best win-loss percentage, .513, of any coach in the club's 14-year history. He needs 20 victories to equal the team's all-time record. His winning percentage in the playoffs is by a wide margin best ever for a North Stars' coach. His three years with the North Stars make up an important part of his life in this state, but Sonmor can look back on more than 20 years of association with the sport in Minnesota. He spent five full seasons and part of another as coach at the University of Minnesota and more than five years as general manager and as coach of the Minnesota Fighting Saints of the World Hockey Association. He also earned his bachelor of science degree in physical education at Minnesota. He makes his home with his wife Marcia, in Hopkins. Sonmor, born in Moose Jaw, Sask., played junior hockey at Guelph, Ont., and Brandon, Man. The bulk of his professional playing career was spent at Cleveland of the American League, but he did play parts of two NHL seasons, 1953-1954 and 1954-55, with the Rangers. His career on the ice was ended in 1955 when he lost the sight of an eye while playing for Cleveland. John Mariucci of the North Stars, then UM coach, hired Sonmor as freshman coach in 1956. He later coached junior hockey at St. Catharines, Ont., in the AHL at Springfield, Mass., and Ohio State University before returning to the UM as head coach in 1966. Sonmor was named Fighting Saints general manager and coach in 1972 and held either one or both of those positions until that team expired in 1977. He coached Birmingham all of the 1977-78 season.

MURRAY OLIVER Assistant Coach

Murray Oliver retained the same title but expanded his duties in his third season as assistant coach of the North Stars this past season. Oliver moved from the pressbox during games to join Glen Sonmor behind the bench. The change enabled Oliver to more effectively aid Sonmor in game situations. He will continue his work with the club's special units — power-play and penalty-killing squads — and handles travel and hotel arrangements when the North Stars are on the road. Oliver, 43, has been part of the NHL picture as a player and coach since the 1959-60 season when he played his first full season for Detroit. He also performed at Boston and Toronto before playing his last five seasons at Minnesota. Murray was voted most valuable North Star by his teammates after the 1971-72 season when he scored a career high 27 goals. He holds the team record of five assists in one game. Oliver was born and raised in Hamilton, Ont., where he played junior hockey and where he was named most valuable player in the Ontario Hockey Association. He and his wife, Helen, and their son and daughter make their home in Edina.

J.P. PARISE Assistant Coach

There are differences between playing left wing in the National Hockey League and acting as assistant coach in the same league. But J.P. Parise has overcome them in his two years in the new role and has become an important factor in the team's story of success. Parise is stationed in the pressbox during games and is in two-way radio communication with fellow-assistant Murray Oliver behind the bench. He assists at workouts and takes turns at special scouting of NHL opponents. He spent 11 full seasons and parts of three others in the NHL. The majority of those seasons were played in Minnesota where Parise first emerged as a quality NHL forward. He played for eight straight seasons at Minnesota, then for the Islanders and Cleveland before the Barons-North Stars merger brought him back for a last hurrah at Minnesota in 1978-79. Parise was voted the most valuable North Star in 1969-70 and played for Team Canada in the first Canada-Soviet Union series in 1972. The native of Smooth Rock Falls, Ont., is the No. 2 Minnesota assist leader with 242. He ranks third on the all-time list in points, fourth in goals and fifth in games played. Parise, 40, and his wife, Donna, make their home in Bloomington.

MINNESOTA NORTH STARS' STAFF

JOHN MARIUCCI
Assistant General Manager

John Mariucci is the man who brought the Ice Age to Minnesota. It was his vision and foresight that made the game much of what it is today in the state. Mariucci, 65, went from his home town of Eveleth to the University of Minnesota where he starred in hockey and football. He played five years of defense in the NHL, coached the University of Minnesota for 11 seasons and joined the North Stars in 1967. At Minnesota one of his prize players was Lou Nanne. At the same school he persuaded Glen Sonmor of the wisdom of obtaining his degree. Mariucci is a member of the United States Hockey Hall of Fame and of the selection committee of the NHL Hall of Fame. He coached the 1955 U.S. Olympic team.

Chief Scout

Not many teams have a Hall of Fame member on their scouting staff. The North Stars have not just one, but two. Gump Worsley last year joined Harry Howell on hockey's roll of honor. Howell was chosen in 1979 in recognition of his feats during 21 seasons in the NHL. Howell, 48, played 1,411 games, scored 94 goals and 324 assists for 418 points and had 1,298 minutes in penalties. His games-played total is fifth highest in the history of the NHL. He is among the all-time leaders in penalty minutes and assists. The native of Hamilton, Ont., was general manager of the Cleveland team that was merged with Minnesota in 1978. He coached the North Stars for part of the 1978-79 seasons before exchanging jobs with Glen Sonmor.

RIGHT/LEFT WING

KENT-ERIK ANDERSSON

Height: 6-2 — 190 lbs.

Age: 30 (May 24, 1951)

Born: Orebro, Sweden

Off-Season Home: Karlstad, Sweden

Hockey — Kent-Erik Andersson, Kenta to his teammates, probably displays a greater variety of skills than any player on the North Stars' roster. He is an excellent skater; he is an intense defensive performer who is literally never out of position; he is one of the club's best penalty killers; he can play either wing with equal facility and can fill in at center if necessary; he has offensive skills that he has used more and more as he has become familiar with the North American game; all in all, a most complete hockey player who adds a great deal to the Minnesota's overall effort.

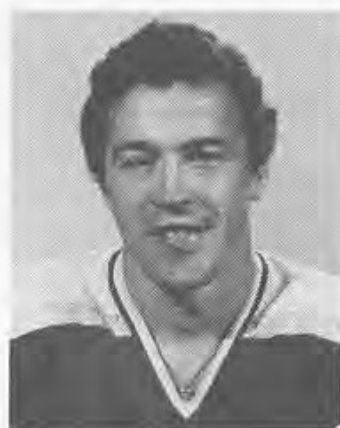

1980-81 — No question that last year was Andersson's best in the NHL. Sports writers and broadcasters covering the team voted him the KSTP-AM Trophy as most-improved player on the squad . . . Achieved personal highs in goals, assists and points . . . Was the only European player on the Minnesota team . . . Scored five goals that gave the North Stars leads and six goals that were in the "insurance" category . . . Had two two-goal games.

Personal — Was chosen to play for Team Sweden in the 1981 Canada Cup tournament . . . Has an excellent command of English . . . Makes his home in Burnsville during the season, but returns to Sweden in the summer . . . An ardent sailor, he planned last summer to cruise to the Norwegian coast . . . He and his wife, Lotta, are the parents of daughters, 5 and 2 . . . Wears contact lenses.

How Obtained — Signed as free agent, June, 1977.

FRED BARRETT

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 195 lbs.

Age: 31 (Jan. 26, 1950)

Born: Ottawa, Ont.

Off-Season Home: Ottawa, Ont.

Hockey — Only three players in the North Stars' history have played more games than Fred Barrett. There's good reason for the longevity (610 games over 10 seasons). Barrett is the type of performer who comes to play every night. His style, which involves taking the body at every good opportunity, does not vary from game to game. What's more, he gets his job done without taking unnecessary penalties. He has never recorded more than 90 minutes in penalties in any one season. During his earlier years with the club, Barrett did not pose much of an offensive threat with nine goals over eight years, but he has refined his shot over the last couple years and has managed 12 goals in the last two seasons.

1980-81 — Scored three of his four goals in the first 16 games of the season . . . One of his goals was a game winner and another was in the opposition's empty net . . . Often was used when the North Stars were playing a man short . . . Had a number of minor injuries, including a bruised hand, pulled groin, broken finger and charley horse.

Personal — He is the North Stars player representative . . . Nickname is Swoop . . . Has played more seasons with the North Stars than any player other than now-general manager Lou Nanne . . . Fred and his wife, Lois, are the parents of two boys . . . Has won the Tom Dill Cup awarded to the team's top defenseman a record four times . . . played junior hockey for the Toronto Marlboros.

How Obtained — Second-round choice (20th overall) in 1970 draft.

GOALTENDER

DON BEAUPRE (BOW-pray)

Height: 5-8 — Weight: 149 lbs.

170 cm. — 67 kg.

Age: 20 (Sept. 19, 1961)

Born: Kitchener, Ont.

Off-Season Home: Waterloo, Ont.

Hockey — "He's great, better than great. Don Beaupre is brilliant." That's how then-Buffalo coach Roger Neilson summed up the performance of Minnesota's teen-age goaltending hero. "... that kid is no normal goaltender. Some players have inborn talent and he's one of them," Neilson continued. Beaupre's inborn talent is composed largely of incredible quickness of hand and feet. He's not large enough at 5-8 and 149 pounds to cover much of the net by merely taking the angles away. He depends on his reflexes and the speed with which he uses his glove, stick and pads to intercept the shots of the North Stars' foes. Given his size, Beaupre is unusually combative. He does not welcome visitors to the goal crease and often takes strong measures to clear out the area.

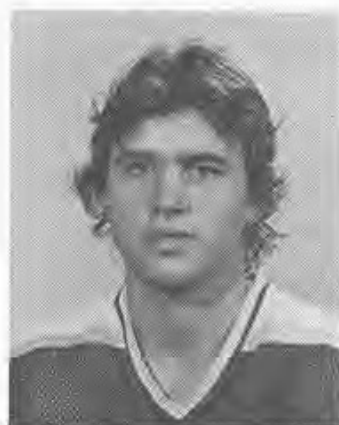

1980-81 — Beaupre made an indelible impression on the NHL during his rookie season. He was chosen as starting goalie — the youngest ever — for the Prince of Wales team in the All-Star game. He finished third in voting for the league's rookie of the year trophy. He won 18 games and finished with a 3.20 goals-against average. When Beaupre came to training camp, there appeared to be no chance that he would make the squad. Minnesota's goaltending seemed safely in the hands of returnees Gilles Meloche and Gary Edwards. But Beaupre forced his way on the team with a sensational training camp, won a starting spot in the season opener and never looked back. He and Meloche shared the goaltending in the regular season. Although Meloche saw more action in the playoffs, it was Beaupre who was in goal for three of the five games in the finals against the Islanders.

Personal — Beaupre left the teen-age ranks on Sept. 19 when he turned 20. . . . He is not married. . . . Was given the nickname Puddin'-Head by teammate Tom McCarthy. . . . Played junior hockey in Sudbury, Ont. . . . Worked out with Team USA in that squad's training camp last summer. Beaupre is Canadian, but the U.S. team needed a fourth goalie for practice. . . .

NEAL BROTEN (BRAW-ten)

Age: 21 (Nov. 29, 1959)

Born: Roseau, Minn.

Off-Season Home: Roseau, Minn.

Hockey — Neal Broten made the transition from college to professional hockey look simple last season when he joined the North Stars for the last three games of the regular season and for the Stanley Cup playoffs. Herb Brooks has called Broten "the best player I ever coached at the University of Minnesota." That covers lots of ground. But Broten has lived up to those words. He is an exceptionally clever young man on the ice. His passes appear to be propelled by guidance systems. His sense of improvisation is remarkable. His peripheral vision allows him to see more of the ice than most players. Those talents add up to an outstanding addition to the Minnesota lineup, one who has to rank among early favorites to win NHL rookie of the year honors in 1981-82.

1980-81 — Broten played most of this season at the University of Minnesota where he led the Gophers to the final game of the NCAA championships before his team bowed to Wisconsin . . . He won the Hobey Baker Award as the outstanding collegiate player in the United States and was chosen Player of the Year in collegiate hockey by Hockey Magazine . . . He was also named to the All-American team . . . Scored a goal in his very first NHL game . . . Had one game-winning goal in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Personal — Broten's younger brother, Aaron, was signed by Colorado after last year's NCAA playoffs. The two were linemates in high school and at the University of Minnesota . . . The Brotens led Roseau to three state berths in the Minnesota state high school tournament . . . Returned to college after leaving for one year to play on the United States' gold medal-winning team in the 1980 Winter Olympics.

How Obtained — Second-round choice (42nd overall) in 1979 draft.

Age: 27 (Aug. 23, 1954)

Born: Virginia, Minn.

Off-Season Home: Eden Prairie, Minn.

Hockey — There is no question at all that Jack Carlson, the North Stars' designated hitter, makes a difference in the fortunes of the Minnesota team. When Carlson is in the lineup — he missed all of the 1979-80 season following surgery to repair a spinal disc problem — the opposition tends to take less liberties with the North Stars. You can liken his presence on the ice to the doctrine of massive deterrence. However you phrase it, he plays an important role. Though Carlson is justly known for his mastery of the physical end of the game, he also has his share of the other skills needed on the ice. He is especially effective in the heavy going in front of the other team's net.

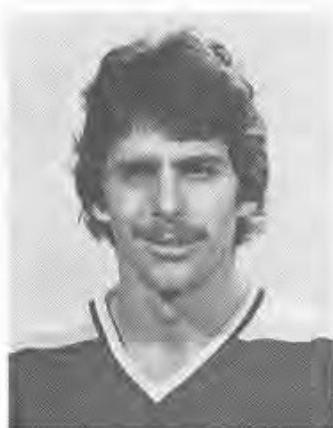

1980-81 — His recovery from the spinal disc surgery didn't really take hold until more than half way through the season. Fifty-seven games into the season, he has played in only 21 contests. But he played all but two games the rest of the regular season and all but the last three contests in the playoffs . . . His lone playoff goal was a key one against the Bruins . . . Set a team record of 48 minutes in penalties in the playoff series with the Bruins.

Personal — Jack's two brothers, Steve and Jeff, played roles in the movie, Slapshot . . . Jack and his brothers were teammates and several professional clubs, including the WHA Fighting Saints in Minnesota . . . The three played high school hockey in Virginia, Minn. . . . Jack's wife is named Toni . . . Wears contact lenses.

How Obtained — Traded by New England (WHA) to Minnesota in February, 1979 for future considerations.

Hockey — Skating and shooting are among the qualities that make Steve Christoff an outstanding NHL forward. The Olympic gold medal winner has an abundance of both talents. He is as strong a skater from the blue line in as you can find anywhere in hockey. His shot is powerful and accurate and often is unleashed from surprising angles. Christoff's ability to play either wing — or center, too, for that matter — is another plus. He has had his greatest success in the NHL on his off or left wing. Finally, his great upper-body strength makes him an effective performer in the corners.

1980-81 — Often a streaky scorer, he was the only North Star to accomplish two hat tricks last season . . . Missed 34 games, most of them because of a broken collarbone suffered during the exhibition season . . . His shooting percentage of 19.7 was most accurate of any regular North Star . . . Led the club with six goals that tied the score during contests . . . Played on a line with Neal Broten and Brad Palmer during the playoffs.

Personal — Married this past summer. His wife's name is Tami . . . Played high school hockey at Richfield, almost within sight of the Met . . . Led the University of Minnesota in scoring in his last two seasons there . . . Chosen for Team USA in this year's Canada Cup . . . Before he played on the United States gold medal-winning Olympic team in 1980, Christoff performed from an NCAA title team at Minnesota . . . His major at the UM was geography.

DINO

CICCARELLI (siss-ah-RELL-ee)

Height: 5-10 — Weight: 181 lbs.

175 cm. — 81 kg.

Age: 21 (Feb. 8, 1960)

Born: Sarnia, Ont.

Off-Season Home: Sarnia, Ont.

Hockey — "Dino has the gift of being in the right place at the right time — usually in front of the net when the puck arrives." So says Minnesota Coach Glen Sonmor in assessing the attributes of the young right winger who made such a splash in the National League late last season and in the playoffs. Ciccarelli not only has the talent described by Sonmor, but he also displays the quality of persistence. He is willing to take a hit, get knocked down, then get up and head right back into the action around the opposing team's goal. These tactics have paid off for Ciccarelli at every level of hockey. The self-confident and popular young man has scored 50 or more goals in three of the last four seasons — he missed most of one year with a severely-fractured femur.

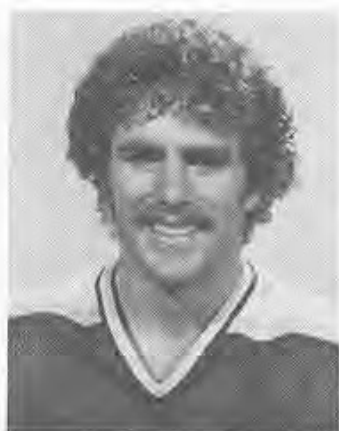

1980-81 — After a couple false starts Ciccarelli arrived with the North Stars to stay on last Feb. 7. The course of the balance of that season for him was little less than amazing. He scored 18 goals in the last 27 games of the regular season, including a team rookie record of four against Detroit on March 22 against Detroit. But the best was yet to come. He shattered teammate Steve Christoff's NHL playoff record by scoring 14 goals. Three of those 14 were scored on a hat trick in Game Four of the semifinal series against Calgary. His 21 points in the playoffs also established a league record for first-year players.

Personal — Ciccarelli's hockey career nearly ended with a fracture of his femur at the start of his 1978-79 junior season at London, Ont. He played all of the next season with a steel rod in his thigh to assist healing of the break . . . He is not married . . . Has two brothers and a sister . . . There is no question that he was the most-popular North Star in the playoffs. Met Center crowds delighted in chanting "Dino, Dino, Dino." A number of souvenirs were created in his honor, including an inflatable dinosaur . . . Won $3,500 in a preliminary Superstars competition last summer.

Age: 25 (June 10, 1956)

Born: Denver, Colo.

Off-Season Home: Minneapolis, Minn.

Hockey — When it comes to intelligence on the ice, Mike Eaves is a world-class performer. There are few players in the sport who have his wisdom and his ability to use it to the advantage of his team. One of the best passers in the NHL, Eaves is particularly effective when the North Stars are on the power play. He parlays patience and precise passes into goals time after time when his team has the man advantage. Those skills also stand him in good stead when play is at equal strength since he has few peers at spotting the open winger and delivering the puck to him.

1980-81 — Eaves had played little more than half the year when the third of a series of concussions put him out of action for the balance of the season. Still, he scored 10 goals and was enroute to a year at least equal to 1979-80 when he was chosen as the team's rookie of the year.

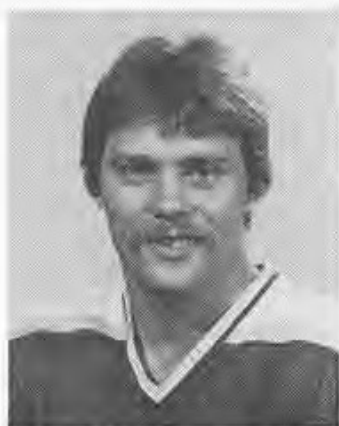

Personal — Set the school record of 267 career points when he played at the University of Wisconsin . . . His father is a college professor . . . Though he was born in the U.S., he grew up and received his hockey training in Canada . . . Most valuable player in the WCHA in his senior season . . . His younger brother, Murray, played for Winnipeg last season . . . His wife's name is Beth . . . Was captain of the Wisconsin team for three seasons . . . Played for Team USA in this year's Canada Cup.

Hockey — The measure of Curt Giles' worth to the North Stars can be found in his teammates' estimate of him. The Minnesotans voted the stocky defenseman the Bill Masterton Memorial Cup awarded to the North Stars player chosen most valuable by his fellow performers. That award was in recognition of the solid showing made by Giles every time he takes the ice, home and away. "He's an 'every-nighter'" said one teammate in explaining his vote for Giles. One of Giles' main weapons is a devastating hip check that has left more than a few opponents airborne. He is one of the steadiest North Stars in his own zone. Although he scored only five goals last season, his patience and passing ability are important to the success of the club's power play. Plays the game hard, but doesn't pick up many penalties.

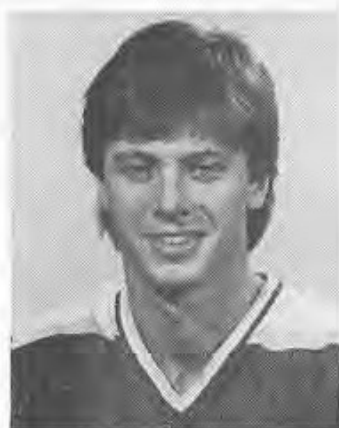

1980-81 — His 22 assists ranked third among Minnesota defensemen . . . Missed 10 games in the second half of the season as the result of a strained right knee . . . On a percentage basis, his 3.4 plus-minus record was the best of all of the Minnesota defensemen . . .

Personal — Chosen as an All-American player twice during his college career at the University of Minnesota-Duluth . . . His nickname is Pengy, short for Penguin . . . Giles is one of the more active North Stars in visiting hospitals and in other humanitarian endeavors . . . Earned his degree in secondary education at UMD . . . His wife's name is Mary Pat . . . Hockey — "I had a good look at Hakansson during the Canada Cup tournament," says Coach Glen Sonmor, "and I liked what I saw." Sonmor described Hakansson's play for Team Sweden as "more aggressive than most Swedish players." He was used at right wing despite his left-handed shot — a not uncommon policy in Europe. "No question in my mind that he can play in the National Hockey League," says Sonmor. "He has what it takes — skating, playmaking, shooting and the willingness to persevere when the traffic gets heavy."

1980-81 — Hakansson spent last season with AIK, a Stockholm-based Elite Division team that the North Stars played in the 1980 Dagens Nyheter tournament.

Hockey — Two seasons back hockey people ranked Craig Hartsburg as one of the best young defensemen in the sport. Now the description is more simple. One adjective has been dropped and Hartsburg is called one of the best defensemen in hockey. His choice on the Team Canada's 1981 Canada Cup squad was recognition of Hartsburg's rise to the front rank among NHL defenders. The No. 1 choice of the North Stars in the 1979 draft has few if any equals when it comes to skating and carrying the puck. He has agility, mobility and self-discipline. That adds up to splendid offensive credentials. But Hartsburg is more than just another defenseman who scores a lot of points. He does that, of course, but he also gets the job done in his own end of the rink, in the corners and in front of the net.

1980-81 — He led all of the North Stars' defensemen with 13 goals and 43 points . . . Missed part of training camp and the first four games of the season with a separated shoulder . . . Eight of his goals were scored on the power play . . . His 15 points in the playoffs were the most ever scored by a Minnesota defenseman in post-season action.

Personal — Hartsburg and his wife, Peggy, became the parents of a boy during last season . . . His father played professional hockey with Coach Glen Sonmor . . . Scored 178 points in his 1961 games as a junior at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. . . Turned professional underage and played for Birmingham of the WHA at the age of 18 . . . Played in the NHL All-Star Game in his first year in the league and scored the winning goal for the Prince of Wales Conference team.

How Obtained — First-round choice (sixth overall) in the 1979 draft.

Hockey — There's no more consistent performer on the Minnesota roster than right winger Al MacAdam. The man his teammates call Spud performs to the peak of his abilities game in and game out. Those abilities make him one of the National Hockey League's premier wingers. MacAdam is a strong and swift skater, a sure-eyed shot and, perhaps most important of all, a player who gives his best every second of every shift. He sees action on his regular shift and on the North Stars' power play and also is one of the club's more effective penalty killers. A quiet man who does not seek trouble, he is respected around the league as one of the best practitioners of the manly art of self defense.

1980-81 — MacAdam's talents didn't flower in full until the playoffs when he teamed with left winger Steve Payne and center Tim Young to form the North Stars' most effective line. Between them, they scored 29 goals, nine of them by MacAdam . . . His percentage of important goals during the regular season, 85.7, was the highest among Minnesota players . . . Scored 10 power-play goals in the regular season, four more in the playoffs.

Hockey — It really is no coincidence that some of the North Stars' best hockey last season was played after Brad Maxwell's return to his defensive position after a long period of recovery from a knee injury. Maxwell's presence on the blue line gives the North Stars the advantages of his very hard, very accurate shot, his ability to carry the puck from end to end, his passing talents and the measure of toughness he adds to the team. Maxwell has been blessed with all these abilities ever since the North Stars drafted him in the first round in 1977, but now maturity has brought all of them into full blossom.

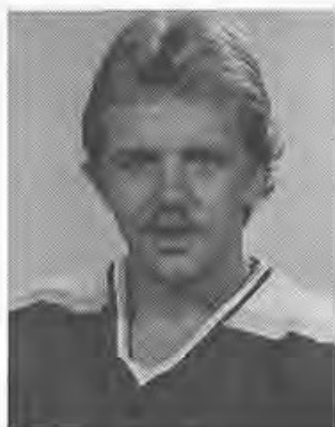

1980-81 — Maxwell missed 43 games with torn knee ligaments, then 10 more with an infected foot before he returned to full-time action last season . . . His goal total in the playoffs matched his three-goal total for the regular season . . . Had 98 minutes in penalties while playing only 27 regular-season games . . . All three of his regular-season goals were first goals of the game.

Personal — Maxwell is the team's best golfer. He plays to a handicap of five . . . Brad and his wife Cathy, are the parents of a daughter. Brad and Cathy met when he was playing hockey in Bellingham, Wash. . . . His sister, Rhonda, is married to St. Louis' Rick Lapointe, like Maxwell a first-round draft choice . . . Was paired with the Rangers' Barry Beck when both played junior hockey in New Westminster, B.C. . . . Scored the Memorial Cup-winning goal for New Westminster in 1977.

Hockey — Exact comparisons are hard to make in hockey. Still, it seems fair to compare Kevin Maxwell's style of play in certain respects with that of Philadelphia's Ken Linesman. Both are somewhat small. Both are talented performers. And both often agitate the opposition. Minnesota Assistant General Manager John Mariucci likens Maxwell to a choir boy in appearance, but adds that choir boys are notorious for creating mischief. Maxwell can create mischief. He also can create havoc. Then, while the opposition is focussing on him, his teammates find that opportunity beckons them. "Maxwell," Coach Glen Sonmor points out, "is the kind of player who wins hockey games for you."

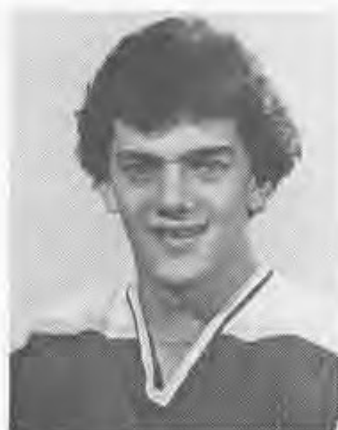

1980-81 — Troubled by injuries all season long, Maxwell spent most of the year at the North Stars' farm in Oklahoma City. He came to Minnesota late in the season, but made his real impact during the playoffs. He scored a goal in each of the Boston, Buffalo and Calgary series, killed penalties and made himself useful to the North Stars and a pest to the opposition. A flareup of an old back ailment caused him to miss much of the final series against the Islanders.

Personal — Minnesota hockey watchers were familiar with Maxwell from his days as a star with the North Dakota University team . . . Played with Canadian Olympic team in 1980 at Lake Placid . . . Studied Communications at North Dakota . . . Maxwell is single . . . He played junior hockey in Penticton, B.C. . . . Has two brothers and two sisters.

Hockey — The vast potential embodied in Tom McCarthy has been glimpsed, like the tip of an iceberg, during his first two seasons in the NHL, but remains to be realized in its entirety. However, he is only 21 years old and there's no question that his best hockey years lie ahead of him. McCarthy is awash with talent. His ability to skate, shoot and stickhandle is equalled by few of his teammates. He was able to use those talents to great advantage during the first half of last season and during that span of time ranked with the best of the North Stars' forwards.

1980-81 — Forty games into the season McCarthy had 16 goals and appeared enroute to an outstanding second year in the National League. But fate, in the form of an injured wrist and consequent surgery, intervened. He missed the last 15 games of the season, scored a total of 23 goals and didn't surface again until the semifinal round of the playoffs.

Hockey — Gilles Meloche has won 44 games over the last two regular seasons, the best two-year performance ever by a Minnesota goalkeeper. There's more than one reason for the flowering of his career. One is that he has reached what is usually the prime of life for a goalie — the early 30s. When a goaltender reaches that stage in his career, maturity comes into play and blends experience with skill. Second, Meloche received exceptional schooling early in his career when he played for a series of weaker teams. If you can avoid discouragement, there's no better teacher than a succession of 40 to 50-shot games. That's often what the then-young Meloche found at California and Cleveland and what has paid dividends at Minnesota.

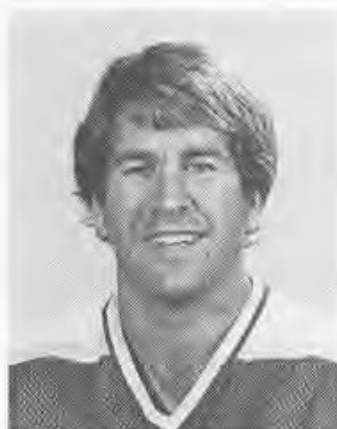

1980-81 — Meloche's regular season was nothing to be sneezed at, but his performance in the Stanley Cup playoffs was exceptional. He won five straight games against Boston and Buffalo before losing to the Sabres in overtime, then captured three of the North Stars four victories against Calgary . . . His two shutouts during the regular season were at the expense of Washington and St. Louis.

Personal — Held the NHL record of six assists in one season by a goaltender . . . Gilles and his wife, Nicole, are the parents of a boy and a girl . . . Owns a popular cafe in Montreal . . . Named Sporting News West Division rookie of the year in 1971-72 . . . His brother, Denis, played in the WHA . . . One of the three North Stars who were with the defunct California team in the early years of expansion. The others are Paul Shmyr and Al MacAdam.

Hockey — Bill Nyrop has few equals when it comes to the essentials of playing defense. That point was proved during his brief comeback with the North Stars in last year's pre-season tournament in Sweden. The Notre Dame graduate played flawless hockey for three games in Stockholm and was voted best defenseman in the tournament. He showed he had lost none of the skills that helped Montreal win three Stanley Cups during his days with the Canadiens. Nyrop's style is basic. Hammer the foe in front of the net, move the puck from your zone quickly and precisely. Add marvelous conditioning to those talents and you have the ingredients a classic National Hockey League defenseman, a successor to players such as Tim Horton and Harry Howell.

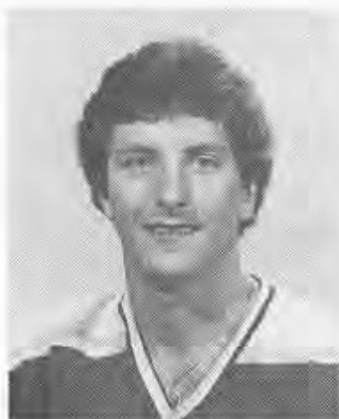

1980-81 — Nyrop has not played professional hockey during the regular season for three years.

Personal — Played for a state championship team during his high school senior year at Edina . . . Has spent the last three seasons working in a branch of the insurance business . . . His father is retired chairman of the board of Northwest Orient Airlines . . . Enjoys backpacking, bicycling and weightlifting . . . A seventh-round choice (66th overall) by Montreal in the 1972 draft . . . Spent some of his spare time during the last three seasons coaching youngsters in the Twin Cities . . . Assisted the North Stars in weight training last season.

How Obtained — From Montreal in August, 1979 for two second-round draft choices.

Hockey — If anyone wondered why the North Stars made Brad Palmer their No. 1 draft choice in 1980, the question was answered late last season. That's when Palmer came up to Minnesota to stay. In those late season games and in the playoffs he displayed skating and shooting skills that haven't been shown by a young Minnesota forward in a good many seasons. Palmer is not a faster skater than a speeding bullet, nor is his shot more powerful than a locomotive. But he does come close in both categories. He came to the North Stars with the reputation as a fine penalty killer in his junior years and reinforced it as a professional. Minnesota's coaching staff feels that Palmer has stuff it takes to insure a long career in the National League.

1980-81 — He went up and down between Minnesota and Victoria, B.C., of the Western Junior League four times before he came back to stay for the last 15 games of the regular season . . . Along with most of the other North Stars, he saved his best performances for the playoffs. Palmer scored eight goals in the playoffs, four of them in the semifinal series against Calgary. One of those goals against the Flames came on a shot so hard that it went right through the net . . . Scored two shorthanded goals in the playoffs.

Personal — One of the bachelors on the team . . . Nickname is Palmy . . . Has worked in the woods as a logger when he was younger . . . Also played junior hockey in Kelowna, B.C. . . . Enjoys hunting, fishing and baseball.

How Obtained — First-round choice (16th overall) in 1980 draft.

Hockey — If you were to choose an ideal model for a high-scoring forward in the National Hockey League, Steve Payne would not be far off the mark. He has the size, stamina and fortitude to win the wars fought in front of the net. He's strong on his skates. He has a shot that is quick and accurate. Those attributes make him one of the premier left wingers in the league after only three seasons as a professional. Payne has scored 95 goals in those three years and his 42-goal season in 1979-80 was the most productive ever for a Minnesota left winger. Given his youth and the improvement in his game from year to year, it is not out of the question to expect him to claim a place among the NHL's stars sooner rather than later.

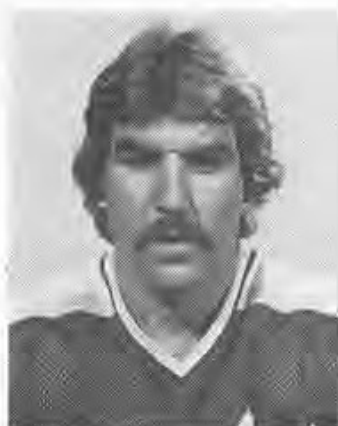

1980-81 — Payne scored 17 goals in the Stanley Cup playoffs, an output exceeded by only one player, the Islanders' Mike Bossy. He established team records for goals in the playoffs (17), points in the playoffs (29) goals in one series (seven against Boston) . . . Two of his four game-winning goals in the playoffs were in overtime . . . He had six power-play goals in the playoffs, 11 during the regular season . . . He reached the 30-goal mark on the last day of the regular season . . . Scored nine goals in the first four games of the playoffs.

Personal — Chosen for the 1981 Team Canada squad . . . Payne is interested in high-performance automobiles . . . He and his wife, Donna, were married summer before last . . . Played junior hockey with teammate Bobby Smith . . . Nickname is Rooster.

How Obtained — Second-round choice (19th overall) in the 1978 draft.

Hockey — He's dashing, durable and definitely an asset to Minnesota's defense. That's Gordie Roberts who was acquired by the North Stars from Hartford before the mid-point of last season. Roberts added another weapon to the Minnesota arsenal. He's a fine attacking defenseman, but one who also pays attention to his chores in front of the net. Roberts' stock in trade is his puck-carrying ability. He can rush the puck from one end of the rink to the other as well as anyone in the NHL. He has a strong shot from the point and also displays a deft touch in close to the goal. A hard hitter, Roberts can more than take care of himself in the battles in front of his team's goal.

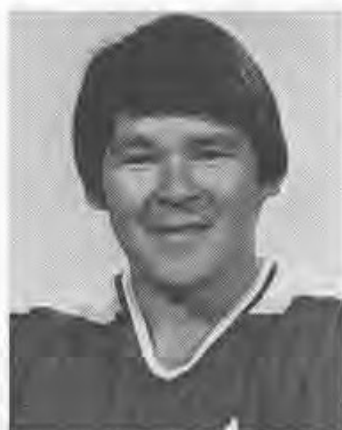

1980-81 — Roberts scored 37 points for the North Stars, 13 for the Whalers for a total of 50, more than any other Minnesota defenseman collected in NHL play . . . His offensive percentage was 40 per cent, second best among Minnesota players . . . His lone goal in the playoffs was a shorthanded score against Calgary . . . His total of 175 penalty minutes for Minnesota and Hartford was higher than that of any other Minnesota player.

Personal — Started in professional hockey at the age of 18 when he was signed by the Whalers . . . Last season was his first for another NHL team . . . Wife's name is Marla . . . Named after Gordie Howe and assisted on the final regular-season goal ever scored by his namesake . . . His brother, Doug, former Michigan State star, coaches hockey at Connecticut College . . . Led WHA defensemen in scoring in 1977-78 and 1978-79 . . . A good tennis player.

How Obtained — Traded by Hartford to Minnesota in December, 1980 for Mike Fidler.

Hockey — The season of 1981-82 looms as a decisive one for Gary Sargent. At some point during the season the spinal fusion surgery he had last March will be tested. The recovery time from surgery of that nature can take up to a year, so the North Stars don't expect full-time service from Sargent right off the bat. Given a complete recovery, the play of the squarely-built defenseman can be a gigantic plus for Minnesota. When Sargent is physically fit, he is one of the best offensive defensemen in the National Hockey League. "One of the best eight at his position in the NHL," says General Manager Lou Nanne. He has had seasons of 14, 12 and 13 goals and has scored as many as 54 points. His presence on the point on the power play means an increase in productivity, not only from Sargent but from the teammates he sets up with passes or rebounds of a shot that is difficult for goalies to control.

1980-81 — Last season was the most frustrating in Sargent's life as a player. He played only 23 games in spots here and there during the season. It is indicative of his ability that he scored four goals in those infrequent outings. After a number of tests in the United States and Canada, Mayo Clinic surgeons operated on his back on last March 18.

Personal — Played high school hockey in Bemidji where he led his team to the state tournament and junior hockey for Fargo of the Midwest League . . . An all-round athlete in high school, he was offered college football scholarships and a baseball contract by the Twins . . . Enjoys fishing, hunting and the general outdoor life . . . Rookie of the year at Los Angeles in 1974-75 . . . Gary and his wife, Jay, are the parents of a girl . . . His brother, Earl, has played hockey in the minors.

How Obtained — Signed as free agent, June, 1978 (compensation to Los Angeles: Steve Jensen, Rick Hampton, Dave Gardner).

PAUL SHMYR

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 189 lbs.

Age: 35 (Jan. 28, 1946)

Born: Cudworth, Sask.

Off-Season Home: Coquitlam, B.C.

Hockey — Paul Shmyr has been captain of the North Stars for two seasons. It is no coincidence that those two seasons have been the best two recorded by the Minnesota franchise. Shmyr has been around professional hockey ever since the National League first expanded in 1967. The experience he has gained over those 15 winters has paid dividends to the North Stars again and again. It has been his presence that has added the touch of steadiness that an otherwise young defense has needed.

1980-81 — Shmyr's biggest night as a North Star, maybe his biggest in the NHL, came in Game Four of the Stanley Cup final series. The North Stars had lost three straight to the Islanders and were facing oblivion in four straight. Shmyr had not been playing. But he was inserted in the lineup that night, set the tone early in the game when his check flattened New York star Denis Potvin and demonstrated the leadership that paved the way for Minnesota's only victory in the final series.

Personal — Paul and his wife, Shirley, are the parents of two boys . . . Enjoys country music . . . Shmyr and goalie Gilles Meloche go back to 1970-71 in Chicago as teammates. They also played together at Oakland . . . His brother, John, played three years in the WHA

How Obtained — Regained by Minnesota in 1979 Expansion (Shmyr's NHL rights had been held by Cleveland).

CENTER

BOBBY SMITH

Height: 6-4 — Weight: 212 lbs.

190 cm. — 95 kg.

Age: 23 (Feb. 12, 1958)

Born: North Sydney, N.S.

Off-Season Home: Ottawa, Ont.

Hockey — When the best centers in hockey are mentioned, the name of Bobby Smith comes into play. Not the best young centers, but the best centers. The tall young man from Ottawa has reached that level of excellence after just three seasons as a professional. He has the size, the skating, shooting, stickhandling and passing ability and, above all, the intelligence that it takes for stardom in the NHL. The No. 1 overall draft choice in 1978 is perhaps better known as a playmaker than anything else. Fair enough because he does have the gift of putting his passes right on a teammate's stick. But he has scored 86 goals in three regular seasons — an average of nearly 29 a season. That shows his shot is nothing to sniff at. Smith's other strong suit is lugging the puck. He can move it from his zone to the opposition's end of the rink with a fluid ease unmatched by most players in the league.

1980-81 — Smith led the North Stars in the regular season with 93 points and 64 assists and was second in goals with 29 tallies. Like most other North Stars, his playoff performance was eye-popping. His eight assists and 11 points against Calgary set team records. His 17 assists overall were the most ever scored in the playoffs by a North Star. He had one hat trick during the season — the second of his career — against Quebec on Jan. 17.

Personal — Chosen for the Team Canada tryouts for the Canada Cup . . . Named as the No. 1 player in Canada during his final junior season . . . Comes from a family of athletic persons. His younger sister, Mary Lou, was ranked in tennis as a junior. Bobby also is a fine tennis player . . . Promotes the sale of ice cream for the Marigold Dairy . . . His arm reach is 37 inches . . . Played junior hockey at Ottawa on the same line with Steve Payne.

How Obtained — First-round choice (first overall) in 1978 draft.

LEFT WING

KEN SOLHEIM (SOUL-hyme)

Height: 6-2 — Weight: 199 lbs.

185 cm. — 90 kg.

Age: 20 (March 27, 1961)

Born: Hythe, Alta.

Off-Season Home: Grand Prairie, Alta.

Hockey — Although Ken Solheim does not have even close to one full season in the National Hockey League behind him, there are those in the North Stars' organization who rank him as the best "pure shooter" on the club. Minnesotans saw enough of him in five regular-season games and two playoff contests to recognize that the assessment is awfully close to the mark, if not right on it. The big, blonde winger can slap or wrist the puck with remarkable force and accuracy. He is a strong skater who has the size to make his presence felt in front of the net.

1980-81 — Drafted underage by Chicago in the second round in 1980, Solheim returned to his Medicine Hat team in the Western Junior League. He was called up for five games by the Black Hawks and responded with two goals. When Chicago traded him to Minnesota, he played five more games and managed two more goals. His scoring added up to four goals in 10 games, a 32-goal pace carried out over an 80-game schedule. Minnesota made the decision to use him in Stanley Cup play in the fifth and deciding game against Buffalo where he scored the North Stars' first goal on the first Stanley Cup shot of his life. Not to be overlooked are his junior statistics for the same season. He scored 68 goals in 64 games and added 43 assists for 111 points.

Personal — Solheim is single . . . He played junior hockey in St. Albert, Alta., before going to Medicine Hat in 1979-80 . . . Enjoys playing baseball in the summertime . . . His home town of Grand Prairie is about 200 miles north of Edmonton in Alberta's Peace River country . . . Has two sisters and one brother.

How Obtained — From Chicago with a second-round 1981 draft choice for Glen Sharpley in December, 1980.

TIM YOUNG

Age: 26 (Feb. 22, 1955)

Born: Scarborough, Ont.

Hockey — Tim Young's start this season will be slowed by a broken ankle he suffered during a summertime softball game. But when he returns — the time is expected to be in the neighborhood of Nov. 1 — he will bring with him an awesome array of talent. There are close observers of the Minnesota hockey scene who feel that Young has more skills in his arsenal than any player on the current squad, perhaps any player ever to perform for the North Stars. He can shoot with the best of them — he scored five goals on five shots in the 1978-79 season and his 31-goal season in 1979-80 was the highest ever by a Minnesota center. He gets the puck to his teammates — his 66 assists in 1976-77 were the most ever recorded by a North Star. He moves back to the point on the power play where those shooting and passing skills can be used to best advantage. Finally, he is one of the team's best penalty killers.

1980-81 — Young found last season, especially the early portion of the playoffs, among the most satisfying of his career. He assisted on the game-winning overtime goal by Steve Payne in Game One against Boston, then scored a team record five points on a goal and four assists in Game Two with the Bruins. Again, he assisted on a game-winning overtime goal by Payne in Game One of the Buffalo series. He had three goals and 11 assists in 10 games when a knee injury and subsequent surgery knocked him out of the Calgary series and most of the final round against the Islanders. His matchup with wingers Payne and Al MacAdam late in the season and in the playoffs created the team's most-effective line.

Personal — Tim and his wife, Mary, are the parents of a son . . . Holds the team record of 95 points in one season . . . Was a first-round draft choice by Los Angeles in 1975 . . . Played in the All-Star game in 1977 . . . During his final junior season at Ottawa he scored 163 points.

How Obtained — From Los Angeles for a second round 1976 draft choice in June, 1975.

Hockey — No one puts more into the sport than Tom Younghans, who has made his way in the NHL on determination, desire and defense. Those qualities have made him a valued North Star for five seasons. He has been one of the club's prime penalty killers in each of those years and often draws the assignment of checking the opposition's No. 1 forward. His role as a defensive specialist doesn't allow too much time for goal scoring, but he has scored seven shorthanded tallies in his career in the league.

1980-81 — Two of his four goals in the regular season were game winners . . . His 80 per cent ranking in important points led all of the Minnesota regulars . . . Only four North Stars played more games during last season.

Personal — Younghans and his wife, Sherry, became parents of a boy, their first child, during last season . . . He played at St. Agnes High School in St. Paul and attended St. Mary's College in Winona and River Falls State College in Wisconsin before spending his last two college seasons at the University of Minnesota where he played with the Gophers' 1976 NCAA championship team . . . Met his wife when both were students at the University of Minnesota . . . Has suffered a series of broken noses in hockey.

NORTH STARS' TRAINERS

Dick Rose
Trainer

Larry Ness
Assistant Trainer

Injuries struck not only the North Stars' players but also the team's training staff last season. But the training crew is back to full strength this year. Dick Rose, 43, starts his 12th season with Minnesota after missing a large share of last year in the wake of spinal fusion surgery. Rose, one of the senior trainers in the National Hockey League, worked with the United States National and Olympic teams before he joined the North Stars in 1969. A high school football hero at St. Paul Central, Rose has been twice named trainer for the NHL All-Star game. His assistant, Larry Ness, found himself in command late last season when surgery forced Rose to step aside. Ness, 27, was in his first year in the NHL, but had trained teams in Milwaukee and Binghamton before coming to the North Stars. Ness was chosen as one of two trainers for the United States team that competed in the 1981 Canada Cup series. Ness is a native of Hibbing, Minn. He attended Hibbing Community College and the University of Minnesota. He and his wife, Ruth, became parents of a girl, their first child, last season.

TELEVISION AND RADIO

The radio and television lineup that followed the North Stars to the Stanley Cup final series last year will be the same this season of 1981-82. KSTP-AM (1500) and KMSP-TV (Ch. 9) once again will cover Minnesota's National Hockey League entrant.

KSTP-AM will carry every one of the team's 80 regular-season games, all of the playoff contests and five of this season's exhibition outings. KMSP-TV has 25 away-from-home games on its television schedule.

Bob Kurtz and Tom Reid return to the Channel Nine screen. This is the third full season of North Stars' play-by-play coverage for Kurtz, the former Michigan State broadcaster. Reid will start his second season of color commentary on television. The long-time Minnesota defenseman earlier handled the same duties on radio.

Al Shaver is one of the deans of NHL play-by-play broadcasters. He will return for the 15th season with his high-pitched trademark of "He scores!!" Shaver will be joined by color commentator Ted Robinson on KSTP-AM. Special radio shows will be conducted by Dan Stoneking, Wally Shaver and Toni Schutta.
